

GARDEN STATE C.M.

F Minor Isaac Watts, Psalm 1 (alt.)

P. Daniel Brittain, April 1994

1. Bless - ed are they who shun of the place Where sin - ers love to de -
 2. But in the stat - utes of the the Lord, Have placed their chief de -
 3. We like a plant of and gen - ev - 'rous kind, By liv - ing wa - ters
 4. Green as the leaf and and ev - 'rous er kind, fair, Shall their pro - fess - ion
 5. Not so the im - pi - ous and un - just, What vain de - sires they
 6. Sin - ners in judge - ment shall not stand A - vain mong the child - ren of meet; Who fear to tread their wick - ed ways; And hate the scof - fer's seat.

 light; By day they read or hear the word, And med - i - tate by night.
 set, Safe from the storms and blast - ing wind, En - joy a peace - ful state.
 shine, While fruits of hol - i - ness ap - pear Like clus - ters on the vine.
 form! Their hopes are blown a - way like dust, Or chaff be - fore the storm.
 grace, When Christ the judge at his right hand, Ap - points his saints a place.